Teaching Experience

Course Instructor, MicroEconomics August 2024 - Date
University of Arkansas.

- Beyond course content expertise, curriculum development and the standard teaching responsibilities, I tend to foster critical thinking through active class discussion. e.g., gauging students' perspectives on policies such as minimum wage, price ceilings and floors etc. through the lens of positive and normative economic views.

Professional Experience

Senior Manager, Reinsurance and Data Analyst October 2020 to August 2023
Ark Insurance Brokers Limited

- Analysis of insurance companies' financial statements to determine business health, using results to advise on underwriters' risk level. This has seen us allocate businesses to companies based on their financial strength and has improved claim recoveries by at least 15%.

Executive, Life and General Business Reinsurance May 2017 – October 2020
Cornerstone Insurance Plc

- Process automation, 100% capital protection through technical analysis of facultative inward/outward risks, and recoveries of claims to improve liquidity position whilst at the same time reducing reinsurance cost and growing premium through policy retention.

Graduate Trainee, (Actuarial Services Unit, Internal Audit) May 2016 – April 2017
Cornerstone Insurance Plc

- Data cleaning, audit reviews, conducting Risk Self-Assessment (RSA) as well as policy document and product pricing review.

Tutoring Experience

Academic Tutor 2011 - 2014
Faculty of the Social Sciences, University of Ibadan, Oyo, Nigeria

- Coached and mentored prospective undergraduates.
- Organised tutorials for colleagues and other students at lower levels.
